I hope you're well.

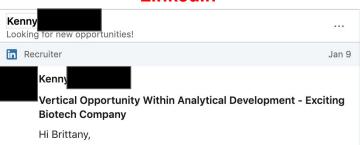

I am a head hunter and would like to speak with you about a new career opportunity.

We are looking to place a high prioritized role in Analytical Development opportunity within a late-stage biotech company in Alabama and your name has been personally recommended to me by someone and I am inclined to believe their recommendation, as their personal experience is excellent. My client is an mid to large biotech organization with a focus in rare diseases and is seeking an individual to be the head of Analytical Development.

The role has considerable global responsibility and I am very interested to speak further with you. I have seen a very brief overview of your background on LinkedIn and wondered if you had a resume that you could send to me. I would like to speak with you to discuss your experience and the role and I am more than happy to call outside office hours, if there was a number I
